

Single Moms Retreat Application

May 21-23, 2010

Do you know a single mom who belongs to an Assembly of God church family? Then get ready to bless her with the opportunity to attend a FREE weekend away that has been specially designed with her in mind. Thanks to Project Hope 2006, SoCal women have made it possible to provide a few days of escape from the pressures of everyday life, and a chance to focus on building up, pampering and encouraging these special ladies at the Single Moms Retreat at Pinecrest Christian Conference Center. Because it's our desire to bless as many women as possible, each mom may only attend once.
