

National Girls Ministries Leadership Development Units: Bronze, Silver, and Gold

The Leadership Development Units have been developed to provide additional training resources to leaders. Due to the vital importance and relevance of this material, two training options are provided.

Option 1 Achievement

Honor Sponsors and Honor Coordinators (in the 1998 curriculum) may obtain a higher level of achievement by becoming Honor Sponsor or Honor Coordinator Bronze, Silver, and Gold.

Bronze Level of a Achievement Requirements

- Be an Honor Sponsor or an Honor Coordinator in the 1998 curriculum (see pages 52-54 in Missionettes Leader Training Guide for Honor Sponsor/Coordinator requirements)
- Complete the requirements for the Leadership Development Units: Bronze Level (see page 6 in the MLDU: Bronze Level for course requirements)

Silver Level of Achievement Requirements

- Be a Bronze level of achievement recipient
- Complete the requirements for the Leadership Development Units: Silver Level (see page 6 in the MLDU: Silver Level for course requirements)

Gold Level of Achievement Requirements

- Be a Silver level of achievement recipient
- Complete the requirements for the Leadership Development Units: Gold Level (see page 6 in the MLDU: Gold Level for course requirements)

Completion of the course requirements qualify a leader to wear the Leadership Development Units: Bronze, Silver, and Gold Pins

Option 2 Personal Development

Leaders who have not completed the requirements to become Honor Sponsors or Honor Coordinators may complete this training simply as a personal development course to enhance their ministry skills. They, however, are not eligible to wear the MLDU Bronze, Silver, or Gold pins until they complete the achievement requirements.
