ALL FOR THE CALL – Leaders Retreat 2010

You've had an amazing summer. Lord knows you've worked hard. You've enlisted volunteers, planned curriculum for your fall kick-off, packed up the VBS decorations and did sub-duty with the preschoolers. Now it's time to pause and refuel before the new school year takes you for a wild ride. Join us and people just like you, amazing Kids Ministry leaders who love Jesus and His call, at the Kids Ministries Leaders and Pastor's Retreat in La Quinta (near Palm Springs).

You're just a click away from registering and it's only $50.00. GET INSPIRED and hear from God! More is wrought by relationship with God and like-minded leaders than we know. Hang out and hear from Jason Noble, former National Children's Ministries Director. Experience abandoned worship without simultaneously managing a group of 3rd and 4th graders Intentionally invest in your select volunteers that are ready to begin their leadership track. Eat, rest, laugh and enjoy bonding with other leaders and your team.

Kid's Leader's & Pastor's retreat is Sept. 10-11 at the Embassy Suites in La Quinta, CA (Palm Springs). Register with Lindsay at SoCal Kids today (949-252-8691) and book your hotel room by calling the Embassy Suites at 800-362-2779. Tell them you're with SoCal Assembly of God Kids Ministries.

Kids Fine Arts – Prep your Kids to “Be About the Father’s Business”

I can see it now, a family night, maybe a Sunday evening, at your church. Is that the aroma of homemade spaghetti in the air? Parents and church family put their hands together as the kids minister through drama, art, human video and any way they can creatively tell HIS story.

Why should Kids Fine Arts be on your radar? Because summer is a great time to try something new, to be inspired to do something for God’s glory. Get your students signed up and prepped for Kids Fine Arts. Download your information packet at the website. The Fine Arts Festival, where students will be performing their craft or displaying their art and being judged will be Friday, October 8 at 6pm-10pm at South Hills Church in Corona. The top three students will then minister their talents live during Kids Convention the following day, Oct. 9.

Calling ALL Kids! See You at CONVENTION at South Hills, Corona

Giant Inflatable fun! Rockin’ and engaging worship, energy that can’t be contained, crazy stunts, skits and the message that saves the world! That’s what you’ll get at “Kids Convention 2010 - All Access Pass!”

Starring “The Fantastic World” (www.thefantasticworld.com), kids will love the super creative story-telling, jar-dropping stunts and big audience participation. Tickets are $15.00 per kiddo and $5.00 per leader (18 and older). Plus the top 3 Kids Fine Arts winners will be “doing their thing” on the big stage at Convention. Download your group registration form at socalag.org/kids.

ROCKETS KIDS REALLY DO ZOOM!

What a summer! Our summer Kids camps yielded some amazing fruit such as:

1. A loud and clear message, Jesus is the only way and as His followers we live a life that points people to Him
 2. Almost 1000 leaders and kids having fun playing, worshiping and learning together
 3. Hundreds of cabin leaders and staff dedicating five days of their summer to kids meeting with God
 4. In and Out Group leaders teaching what it means to follow Jesus in every day life
 5. A ZOOM Missions offering totaling $4,447. These missions-giving kids are Rocket Kids, going places and giving because Jesus' story needs to be told!
