Mission: Internship Philippines

Purpose Statement

Mission: Internship Philippines (MIP) is a two-month learning experience for university students that will:

Expose them to missionary life & ministry.

Educate them to missiological principles & practices in Asia.

Enable them to experience & apply what they have learned in previous mission studies.

Equip them with missionary tools & resources for effective cross-cultural ministry.

Empower them to participate & partner in fulfilling the Great Commission.

Encourage them toward a life-time of service & involvement in missions.

Location

MIP is based at the Global Missions Center on the Asia Pacific Theological Seminary (APTS) campus in Baguio City, Philippines.

Orientation and training will begin in Baguio City before students are sent to the various internship sites in other parts of the country.

Schedule

June 12-18:	Orientation & Training
June 19-July 11:	Field Internship
July 12-14:	Mid-Service Break
July 15-Aug 4:	Field Internship
Aug 4-7:	Debriefing

Internship Ministry & Sites

Students will be placed in teams of 3-6, and they will serve together with national and missionary leaders around the country. Ministries will include some of the following: evangelism, campus ministry, children's ministry, preaching, teaching, street outreach, medical ministry, orphanage ministry & more.

Ministry Sites Include:

- Manila
- Baguio City
- San Fernando, LU
- Roxas City
- Vigan City
- Davao
- Samar
- Bataan

Other possibilities include Indonesia, Cambodia, Thailand

Program Costs

The program cost for attending MIP is $2,100. This includes all in-country transportation, food, lodging & materials. Travel to and from the Philippines & any airport costs are not included in this price, but MIP can help with travel recommendations.

Academic Credit

APTS is a fully accredited seminary. Depending on the level and desire of the student, MIP can be taken for 3-6 units of undergraduate or graduate credits through APTS or possibly through your local institution. If interested, contact your academic office and MIP for more information.
